

Agenda

Working group Meeting of Workgroup 1 Elements and procedural requirements of NFPs Vienna, Tuesday 16 September 2003

social learning and iterative processes

- 08.30 – 09.00 Adoption of the agenda
- 09.00 – 10.00 Presentations of theoretical papers
- Margareth Shannon (USA)
Title: What is social learning and what can we learn about processes of policy learning experimentation
 - Johan Barstad (Norway)
Title: iterative processes and social learning in regional planning
 - Discussion about main characteristics of social learning and iterative processes
Discussion regarding the degree of controllability
- 10.00 – 10.20 coffee- tea- break
- 10.20 - 11.20 Further discussion about main characteristics of social learning and iterative processes
Discussion regarding the role of social learning for NFPs
- 11.20 - 12.30 Discussion about results part one (in sub- groups) how managerial are the main aspects of social learning ?
- 12.30 – 14.00 lunch
- 14.00 - 15.30 Content - & process evaluation of the WG1 results of Cost-Action
- Signing up experiences relevant subjects for future research and how to keep our network alive?
 - Formulating conclusions and report of WG1
- 15.30 – 15.50 coffee- tea- break
- 15.50 – 17.00 Plenary session; report of WG1 to the plenary - discussion