

Programme of the seminar

September 21st, 2011

International cooperation in wood harvesting and logistics

Petrozavodsk State University

Pr. Lenina 33, Petrozavodsk, Republic of Karelia, Russia

- 9:00 Opening of the seminar
Vladimir Syuney, Petrozavodsk State University
- 9:20 Productivity of wood harvesting operations in Northwest Russia
Viktor Senkin, John Deere Forestry
- 9:40 Mitigation of the impact of forwarders on forest soils
Vasily Katarov, Petrozavodsk State University
- 10:00 Adaptation of Finnish forest machinery to Russian conditions
Aleksander Seliverstov, Petrozavodsk State University
- 10:20 Logistics optimisation system for industrial and energy wood transport
Anton Sokolov, Petrozavodsk State University
- 11:00 Harvesting alternatives and transportation logistics for wood from young stands
Juha Laitila, Finnish Forest Research Institute
- 11:20 Analysis of wood harvesting and chipping operations with simulating tools
Yuri Suhanov, Petrozavodsk State University
- 11:40 Coniferous wood import from Russia to Finland
Timo Tolonen, Finnish Forest Research Institute
- 12:00 Discussion
- 12:30 Lunch
- 13:30 Perspectives for utilisation of forest chips in the Republic of Karelia and in Finland
Vadim Goltsev, Finnish Forest Research Institute
- 13:50 Business opportunities in the forest sector of Northwest Russia
Yuri Gerasimov, Finnish Forest Research Institute
- 14:10 Company presentation
Metsäliitto
- 14:30 Final discussion